Jenni Jensen shares "treasures" with Heart & Home Value Center

Collaboration Pays Dividends

After years of serving the Kenmore community, Hidden Treasures thrift store is closing its doors. Manager Jenni Jensen learned of the Heart & Home Value Center's plans for a missional business in Bellevue and loved it. She's been spreading the news ever since. This week Hidden Treasures, sponsored by Cedar Park church, made a huge donation of store fixtures to Heart & Home. They also supplied an abundance of high quality fall and winter clothing, which is timely for the Fall opening of the Heart & Home Value Center.

Donation Center Open Now

Donations are being accepted at our donation center 1488 127th Pl NE Bellevue 98005. Soon JRC will open a community and capacity building retail store. The Heart & Home Value Center will provide high quality new and like new apparel, fashion accessories, and home furnishings to the public at favorable prices; all with the same hospitality you associate with the Jubilee REACH Center. More than a retail store, The Heart & Home Value Center will provide employment opportunities and training in marketable job and life skills for members of our diverse community. The Heart & Home Value Center will extend the "REACH" of the JRC!

Great Camp:

"Mystery Mania" was the weekly theme at City of Bellevue's Great Day Camp for middle school students. Based at JRC more than fifty students and staff come and go daily to local adventures and discoveries.

Great Campers come daily to JRC and then venture far and wide to attractions in the Puget Sound area.

BYSO @ JRC

Masked campers from Bellevue Youth Symphony Orchestra (BYSO) have filled JRC with music and laughter for the past three weeks. Each week climaxed with an open air concert for families and the community. Thank you, music makers!

Mighty young men from Mars Hill church and three JRC guys worked through the day to move the donated fixtures and cabinets from Hidden Treasures to our Donation Center in Bellevue. This was hard work, made even harder in the 100+ temperatures, but energy remained high and fellowship was strong through the day. Thank you guys and Mars Hill!!

Popsicles 'R Us!!!

Ice on a stick and lots of it helped Summer Art Club girls beat the "record heat" at JRC this week.

The Art Club members clipped, snipped and pasted some descriptions of fun in the sun at JRC. You girls are so COOL!

Melinda Creamer & Agnetta Kabuage distributed "gourmet brown-bags" to pastors and JRC volunteers.

Chef Melinda at JRC

Chef Melinda Creamer brings culinary arts and professionalism to the JRC Community Kitchen. There was so much activity at JRC this week that the local pastors took their fellowship, planning and lunch "al fresco."
